EXPORTS FROM MADHYA PRADESH FIND TRACTION IN MIDDLE EAST & BANGLADESH

The Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT) has reported that Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, and other Middle Eastern countries were the leading importers of agriculture and agro-processed products from Madhya Pradesh.

Additionally, Bangladesh emerged as the primary purchaser for textiles from the region.

The agro and textile products of Madhya Pradesh, identified under the One District One Product (ODOP) scheme, have witnessed a significant expansion of their reach into Middle Eastern countries and Bangladesh.

“This has prompted the government to explore untapped markets for exports from the state,” said Suvidh Shah, Joint Director, DGFT.

Madhya Pradesh exported 38 ODOP items with potential for more as new districts are included. Key exports in 2022-23 included bananas, chili powder, coriander seeds, and home textiles. Total exports amounted to Rs 65,878 crore, showing a 13% increase. Over 5000 items, including pharmaceuticals and automobiles, contribute to the state's export potential.

PRIVATE TRADE PUSH MILLET PRICES ABOVE MSP IN KARNATAKA, RAJASTHAN, MAHARASHTRA, AND UTTAR PRADESH

Private trade purchases of millets, such as bajra, maize, and ragi, have driven prices 15-20% above MSP in key agricultural states like Karnataka, Rajasthan, Maharashtra, and Uttar Pradesh. The price surge is due to high demand from value-added millet products by companies like ITC Foods and Tata Soufull, as well as increased millet usage in animal feed, especially in poultry and starch industries.

The government's promotion of millets as sustainable crops has increased demand, but government procurement agencies like FCI have seen decreased purchases for the 2023-24 kharif season.

Farmers are selling millets at prices higher than MSP, leading to lower government procurement. Maize, ragi, and bajra prices are above MSP, with millet market prices 15-20% higher.

ITC collaborates with FPOs to enhance millet production. Higher bajra prices impact poultry feed costs. Government procurement focuses on rice and wheat, not millets.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION MECHANISM PROCESS-STEP-1

District court rules that it cannot compel arbitration where parties contracted to arbitrate pursuant to now-defunct DIFC LCIA Rules

Plaintiff Baker Hughes Saudi Arabia Co. Ltd. (“Baker Hughes”) contracted with Dynamic Industries Saudi Arabia, Ltd. (and other related Dynamic Industries entities named in the case as Defendants (collectively, “Dynamic”)) to supply materials, products, and services for an energy project Dynamic was working on in Saudi Arabia. The parties’ contract required that disputes, if not otherwise resolved, “shall be referred by either Party to and finally resolved by arbitration under the Arbitration Rules of the DIFC LCIA (the ‘Rules’) from time to time in force

The DIFC LCIA—the Dubai International Financial Center London Court of International Arbitration—was an arbitration center located in Dubai that applied international rules for arbitration based on those used in the London Court of International Arbitration. However, on September 20, 2021, Dubai enacted “Decree 34 of 2021 Concerning the Dubai International Arbitration Centre,” in which it abolished the DIFC LCIA and replaced it with the Dubai International Arbitration Centre (“DIAC”).

Thereafter, Baker Hughes filed suit against Dynamic in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, in New Orleans, alleging damages of $1.355 million for unpaid services. Dynamic moved to dismiss the claims on the ground of forum non conveniens, and in the alternative, moved to compel arbitration. In opposition, Baker Hughes argued that the arbitration provision was unenforceable, because the selected forum, the DIFC LCIA, no longer existed.

Dynamic argued that, nevertheless, Baker Hughes should be compelled to arbitrate its claims in the DIAC, since the abolition decree not only transferred the assets, rights, and obligations of the DIFC LCIA to the DIAC, but also expressly stated that DIFC-LCIA arbitration agreements remained valid. The court found, however, that neither it nor the Dubai government had the authority to unilaterally change the arbitration forum agreed to by the parties.

NEPAL WANTS EASY ACCESS TO INDIAN MARKET TO EXPORT IN BULK AND ON LONG-TERM BASIS

The Nepal government on Friday said it wants to export tomatoes in bulk and on a long-term basis to India but for that, it needs to have easy access to the market and other necessary facilities.

The neighbouring country's plea came a day after Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman told Parliament that India has started importing tomatoes from Nepal amid a record-high spike in prices in thIndia is importing tomatoes for the first time due to high retail prices which were as high as Rs 242 per kg on Friday amid supply disruptions caused by heavy rains. Nepal is desirous to export vegetables, such as tomatoes, on a long-term basis to India, but for that India has to provide easy access to its market and other necessary facilities, Agriculture Ministry spokesperson Shabnam Shivakoti told PTI here.

started exporting tomatoes to India through official channels a week ago, it is not in big quantities, she said.

Arrangements are yet to be made for large scale export of tomatoes, she added.
