MOBILE EXPORTS TO REACH $50-60 BILLION, ELECTRONICS SECTOR TO EMPLOY 25 LAKH: UNION MINISTER ASHWINI VAISHNAW

Mobile phone exports from India are expected to increase by over five times, reaching a staggering USD 50-60 billion in the near future, up from approximately USD 11 billion last year, predicted Union IT and Communications Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw.

During a fintech event on Wednesday, Vaishnaw highlighted the significant growth anticipated in employment within the electronics manufacturing sector, with numbers expected to surge from the current 10 lakh to 25 lakh.

India's mobile phone manufacturing has shifted to domestic production, with a projected rise to the third-largest economy by 2027.

Forecasts suggest a market capitalization of USD 10 trillion by 2030.

The country has seen significant infrastructural developments in railways, highways, and airports, with plans for further expansion in the coming years.
