INDIA ALLOWS ONION EXPORT TO FIVE NATIONS DESPITE BAN

India, the world's largest exporter of onions, has permitted limited exports of the vegetable to a few countries following diplomatic requests. However, the overall ban on overseas onion shipments will continue due to projections of lower domestic output for two consecutive years.

The government has allowed exports of 50,000 tonnes to Bangladesh, 550 tonnes to Bhutan, 3,000 tonnes to Bahrain, 1,200 tonnes to Mauritius, and 14,400 tonnes to the UAE.

India's rabi onion production for 2023-24 is expected to be 19.3 million tonnes, lower than the previous season. Rabi onions are crucial for year-round availability.

The government is procuring onions to build a 500,000-tonne emergency reserve for 2024-25 to stabilize supplies and prices. Onions are vital in Indian cuisine, leading to price sensitivity and measures like export bans to control fluctuations.

NORTHEAST INDIA TO BECOME EXPORT HUB FOR BANGLADESH, ASEAN MARKETS

The Indian government is rapidly implementing a comprehensive strategy to transform the landlocked northeastern region into an export hub for markets in Bangladesh and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN).

This initiative comes as India negotiates an improved free trade deal with the 10-nation ASEAN bloc, aiming to conclude the revised agreement by 2025, reported HT.

The revised trade deal aims to rectify past issues of low-quality Chinese goods flooding India through ASEAN, causing a trade deficit. The renegotiated deal could benefit India's northeastern states by leveraging their strategic location. Plans include identifying market needs, policy support, and infrastructure development to boost trade with ASEAN. Japan is a key partner investing in infrastructure in the northeast and aiming to create a new industrial value chain connecting the region to Bangladesh. Talks for renegotiating the ASEAN-India trade agreement are ongoing, with the northeast poised to become a trade gateway for Asia-Pacific countries.
